Re: Jane Best-Simpson v. New York Organ Donor Network et al
Case No:07cv2683(BSJ)

Dear Hon. Magistrate Peck:

We are the Attorneys for New York Organ Donor Network, Elaine Berg, Individually and in her Professional Capacity, Michele Clayton Lucas, Individually and in her Professional Capacity, Julia Rivera, Individually and in her Professional Capacity, Martin Woolf, Individually and in his Professional Capacity, Robert Gosseen and Gallagher Gosseen Faller & Crowley.

At the conference on October 23, 2007, you ordered Ms. Best-Simpson to refine her Initial Disclosures and serve them on Defendants within two weeks, which would have made them due November 6, 2007. As of today's date we have not received them. On Thursday, November 1, 2007 Florence McCallister, Mr. Gosseen's Legal Assistant, sent an e-mail to Ms. Best-Simpson reminding her of the due date of the refined Initial Disclosures. She received an e-mail response from Ms. Best-Simpson confirming the due date as November 6th stating that "I do believe that I will be able to comply with that date." Ms. McCallister also called Ms. Best-Simpson and spoke to her regarding the Initial Disclosures, advising her that if she needed more time to request an extension from Your Honor, we would have had no objection. Ms. Best-Simpson indicated that she would have the Initial Disclosures filed in a timely manner but we have not received a request for an extension.

Plaintiff has not served the Initial Disclosures despite our good faith efforts to assist her in the deadline ordered by Your Honor.

Defendants also respectfully request that the Court address this matter at the November 20, 2007 conference as litigation cannot be conducted efficiently if deadlines are not taken seriously.

Re (cont'd) Ms. Best Simpson have to send and file her Ltr 4/26/07
Initial Disclosures by 11/19/07. Re (cont'd) w/objection
it is somewhat type MS / Best Simpson Margaret Boddy and she not an attorney, so I am ignorant of the regarding it for the Court!
